LUNCH PM NETWORK: THE LAZY PROJECT MANAGER

PMI Mid-MO Chapter VP of Professional Development Tami Clark will lead the group's discussion around the concepts of "The Lazy Project Manager," by Peter Taylor.

These concepts include:

- Having success with productive laziness
- Focusing project management efforts where it makes the most impact, and
- How do smart, lazy people have an edge and why are they most suited for organizational, leadership roles?

DESIGN THINKING

Prepare to embark on a captivating journey into the world of 'Design Thinking' with guest speaker Kasi Grossman from the PMI North Carolina Piedmont Triad chapter.

In this session, Kasi will harness her expertise to showcase the incredible potential of integrating Design Thinking into project management solutions.

Design Thinking is more than just a process; it's a mindset that unleashes innovation, fosters collaboration, and transforms challenges into opportunities. Kasi Grossman, a trailblazer in the realm of product and project management, has been contemplating the extraordinary impact of Design Thinking on our profession.
